WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK . . .

Today's Events.

Mrs. W. Amott Cook and Mrs. James A. Nease will be hosts in the country club, giving tea.

Beautiful Matinee Musicale.

An appreciated event of many and friends to a very small company of friends was the matinee musicale in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Louis Carson on south Cincinnati avenue. Among those who were fortunate to be present heard some of Tulsa's prettiest in a delightful program. Those who appeared were Miss A. E. Lewis soprano; Madame June Head, violinist; Mrs. Walter L. Cain pianist; Mr. W. R. Gubler baritone; Mrs. Lewis, as it was stated, is quite new in musical circles, and this was her first appearance before an audience. She sang before Frances Alda last spring and Alda played her accompaniment, praising her voice very highly. It is a pure soprano with a bit of pathos, yet a smile in it. She sings with that voice that indicates that she loves to sing. The rendition of every song in which groups was delicate and artistic, and in particular that "The City of Gadzoo." Mrs. Lewis demonstrated her ability to rise above the higher songs and get deeper into the lower ones. In her interpretation of the tragic as an encore sang "Alasko, Just Her Way." Madame June Head captivated her listeners and won their instant approval of her as a master of the bow in her rendition of two movements of the Greek concerto in F minor. Daniel Reed studied with some of Oregon pupils in London, and one who knew something of the wacky Greenwich style realized that madame not only knew the master, but was a technician in her handling of the bow. Mr. Gubler sang in his usual fine style and was paid many compliments for the way in which he gave "Madame's Vision Fugitive from 'Exodus,'" singing in French. Mr. Gubler sang with emotion with basso qualities very full justice to this number. He sang a group of lighter songs and gave an encore the delightful ballad "Keep on Hopin'" by Hyron Maxwell. To Mrs. Walter L. Cain, as the accompaniment of the afternoon, infinite credit is due. Mrs. Cain sustained singers with sympathy and in the Gregor sonata with Madame Head, rose to heights of dignity and rare beauty. The informal afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Carson is just an initial event and will be followed during the winter with others. The home was beautified with gift flowers. Those present were Messrs. and Madames E. Roger Kemp, George S. Boie, W. J. Lewis, A. E. Lewis, John D. Mayo, W. H. Gatherson, H. H. Messmer, Madames Jennie Yates, June Reed,

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easily prepared, and saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cold is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it's pure and good.

Pour 2½ ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup, or use refined molasses, honey, corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air tubes, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and stops your cough entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

GREENBERG'S 1/2 PRICE SALE OF Coats, Suits and Dresses

Despite the drastic reductions in selling price that we have been making the past three weeks on all women's ready-to-wear, our stock, due to the inclement weather, has not moved as rapidly as it should, and the result is that we are hopelessly overstocked for this season of the year.

We have only two alternatives through which we can remedy this condition. One is to carry over till next season and have our shelves full of out-of-date styles of merchandise, and the other is to pocket our loss and mark our coats, suits and dresses so low that they are bound to move. The latter course is the one we will pursue.

We predict that every woman in Tulsa will be quick to take advantage of this unprecedented cut in prices on all women's ready-to-wear, and suggest that you buy early—last moment selections are never as satisfactory as when you have more time.
